

Трансляция доказательных медицинских знаний
Knowledge Translation of Cochrane evidence for Health Policy and Practice

The objective of the workshop

To showcase the vital contribution of Cochrane evidence to shaping health policy and practice, including in COVID-19 pandemic

9:00 – 9:15	Official opening and welcome from the Rector of RMANPO D.A. Sychev and the Director of the Department of International cooperation and public relations of the Ministry of health of the Russian Federation S.M. Muravyev
9:15 – 9:35	Welcome address from Cochrane Nordic and sharing Nordic experience of using Cochrane Evidence for Health Policy and furthering Sustainable Healthcare Karsten Juhl Jorgensen, Cochrane Board, and Dina Muscat Meng, Cochrane Nordic, Copenhagen
9:35 – 9:55	Developing clinical guidelines for Russian Federation V.V. Omelyanovsky, RMANPO, Federal MoH, Moscow
9:55 – 10:15	WHO Europe EVIPNet contribution to Evidence-Informed Policy Marge Reinap, WHO EURO, Copenhagen
10:15 – 10:30	Questions, discussion
10:30 – 10:50	Knowledge Translation: the importance of continuing medical education D.A. Sychev, RMANPO, Rector, Moscow
10:50 – 11:10	Cochrane Russia working for Cochrane Knowledge Translation including delivering Coronavirus (COVID-19) Resources for Russian speaking audiences LE Ziganshina, EV Yudina, Cochrane Russia
11:10 – 11:30	Practical implications of Cochrane evidence informed policies in providing patient care Ch.S. Pavlov, 1 st Moscow State Medical University (FMSMU) named after I.M. Sechenov, Moscow
11:30 – 11:50	An introduction to the Cochrane Library Tony Aburrow, Senior Cochrane Editor John Wiley & Sons, Chichester, UK
11:50 – 12:10	Information technologies for Knowledge Translation E.B. Kleimenova, RMANPO, Moscow
12:10 – 12:30	Evidence-based medical knowledge: Real world data vs Evidence-based medicine A. S. Kolbin, Spbsmu, Saint Petersburg
12:30– 13:00	Questions, discussion